

The Wake Forest University Native American Student Association

Invites you to attend

Native Movement: A Night of Cherokee Dances with the Warriors of Anikituhwa and the Raven Rock Dancers

Friday, 13 November 2009 at 7:00 PM

Wake Forest University

Annenberg Auditorium, Carswell Hall

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

(Reception afterwards in Greene Hall)

The Warriors of Anikituhwa and the Raven Rock Dancers perform traditional ceremonial dances of the Cherokee, including the stomp dance. This event is being sponsored by the Wake Forest University Native American Student Association, the Office of Multicultural Affairs, and others. Event is free and open to the public.

Carswell Hall is located at the corner of Wingate Road and Gulley Drive. There is a parking lot near Carswell, but it is likely to be full; parking is available on the Wake Forest Road lot below the Law School (across from tennis courts). Campus map is available at <http://www.wfu.edu/visitors/>.